

Harvard Campus Tour & Fellowship Leader

The mission of GPI US is to empower today's youth to thrive in a global world through educational study abroad programs. Our top-quality programs challenge, inspire, and educate our students to be better prepared for globalization. Many of our programs focus on global issues, leadership, cross-cultural understanding, problem solving, and communicative English. We aim to maximize students' experiences through thought-provoking seminars, engaging classes, excursions, conversations with peers, and practical discussion.

GPI US is seeking a Harvard student who is interested in sharing their Harvard experience with Japanese high school students visiting and learning in the Boston/Cambridge area. Interest in global education and Japanese culture and experience living abroad is a plus.

Duties Include:

- Leading a one-hour Fellowship in either a small discussion group or in front of a larger group in a panel-style discussion
 - Topics of discussion should range from empowering/motivating personal stories to your daily life to why you chose Harvard
 - The fellowship is not an admissions session, but a more personal perspective on Harvard and college life
 - If students have trouble asking meaningful questions, we welcome you to guide the session
- Leading a one-hour Tour of the campus for 10 – 15 students
 - The tour will be unique and personal, based on your time at Harvard. It can range from showing your favorite café or reading spot to your dorm or favorite classroom
 - The tour is not a Wikipedia history tour, although taking time for some famous photo spots and ancient Harvard myths and legends is always welcome
- Being able to engage students and draw out questions from students during the Fellowship and Tour

Requirements:

- Applicants should have interest in education, international culture, global issues, travel, and/or Japan
- Applicants must be fluent in English

Dates & Compensation:

- There are several 2-hour opportunities throughout March and early April 2019.
- You will be compensated for this position. Please inquire below for details.
