

Become a GPI US JAPANESE MIT STUDENT AMBASSADOR

Do you want to inspire Japanese high school students?

Do you want to share your story, struggles and accomplishments?

Do you want to give back to your community?

GPI US is seeking MIT students who are interested in sharing their MIT experience with Japanese high school students visiting and learning in the Boston area.

The mission of GPI US is to empower today's youth to thrive in a global world through educational study abroad programs. Our top-quality programs challenge, inspire, and educate our students to be better prepared for globalization. Many of our programs deal with global issues, leadership, cross-cultural understanding, problem solving, and communicative English. We aim to maximize students' experiences through thought-provoking seminars, engaging classes, excursions, conversations with peers, and practical discussions.

Duties Include:

- Inspiring a group of 10-11 Japanese high school students visiting Boston while showing them the MIT campus
 - No need to know every building or fact – it should be a tour of your MIT experience!
- Answering questions, and inspiring Japanese youth to dream big, ask questions, overcome their struggles, and follow their hearts!

Requirements:

- Applicants should be interested in sharing their story with Japanese high school students
- Applicants must speak English and/or Japanese
- Applicants must be a current student or recent graduate of MIT

Dates & Compensation:

- There are several 2-hour opportunities during December 2019 and March 2020.
- We are happy to provide shadowing opportunities or connect you with past participants to learn more
- If you are only available for 1 hour, we are able to split the tour and fellowship portions to accommodate.

To Apply: Please email Allison Medoff at allison@gpius.net. For more information about GPI US, please visit our website at www.gpius.net or our Facebook page at www.Facebook.com/gpiusinc.