

Empowerment/Leadership Facilitator for Japanese High School Students

The mission of GPI US is to empower today's youth to thrive in a global world through educational study abroad programs. Our top-quality programs challenge, inspire, and educate our students to better prepare them for an increasingly globalized world. Many of our programs explore current issues, leadership, cross-cultural understanding, and problem-solving, all while practicing communicating in English. We aim to maximize students' experiences through thought-provoking seminars, engaging classes, excursions, conversations with peers, and practical discussion.

GPI US is seeking a Facilitator who is interested in leading our GPI US Empowerment/Leadership sessions with Japanese high school students visiting the Chicago area. Interest in global education, Japanese culture, and experience living abroad is a plus.

Duties Include:

- Developing lesson plans to improve students' communication skills, critical thinking skills, problem-solving skills, and cultural and global awareness.
- Attending any pre-program orientation meetings.
- Leading classroom management and guiding Discussion Leaders through small group activities (the majority of the class will be conducted in small groups with university students serving as Discussion Leaders).
- Facilitating discussions, engaging students, and taking direction from the GPI US Head Coordinator when applicable.
- Being able to revise lesson plans on the spot depending on the students' ability and time constraints.

Requirements:

- Interest in education, international cultures, global issues, travel, and/or Japan.
- Experience teaching international high school students (preferred).
- Fluent English speaking and writing abilities (No Japanese language skill required).
- Commitment to all program dates/times (session lengths may vary from 2-4 hours).
- Ability to confidently lead and facilitate sessions.
- Flexibility and being able to make quick, educated decisions.

Details:

Dates: March 25 - 29 (4 sessions)

Compensation: $800
