

Stanford Campus Tour & Fellowship Leader

The mission of GPI US is to empower today's youth to thrive in a global world through educational study abroad programs. Our top-quality programs challenge, inspire, and educate our students to be better prepared for globalization. Many of our programs focus on global issues, leadership, cross-cultural understanding, problem solving, and communicative English. We aim to maximize students' experiences through thought-provoking seminars, engaging classes, excursions, conversations with peers, and practical discussion.

GPI US is seeking a Stanford student or graduate who is interested in sharing their Stanford experience with Japanese high school students visiting and learning in the San Francisco Bay Area. Interest in global education and Japanese culture and experience living abroad is a plus.

Duties Include:

- Leading a one-hour Fellowship in either a small discussion group or in front of a larger group in a panel-style discussion
 - Topics of discussion should range from empowering/motivating personal stories to your daily life to why you chose Stanford
 - The fellowship is not an admissions session, but a more personal perspective on Stanford and college life
 - If students have trouble asking meaningful questions, we welcome you to guide the session
- Leading a one-hour Tour of the campus for 5 – 15 students
 - The tour will be unique and personal, based on your time at Stanford. It can range from showing your favorite café or reading spot to your dorm or favorite classroom
 - The tour is not a Wikipedia history tour, although taking time for some famous photo spots and ancient Stanford myths and legends is always welcome
- Being able to engage students and draw out questions from students during the Fellowship and Tour

Requirements:

- Applicants should have an interest in education, international culture, global issues, travel, and/or Japan.
- Applicants must be fluent in English.
- Applicants must be a current student or graduate of Stanford
