

The University of Chicago Campus Tour & Fellowship Leader

The mission of GPI US is to empower today's generation to thrive in a global world through educational study abroad programs. Our top-quality programs challenge, inspire, and educate our students to be better prepared for globalization. Many of our programs deal with global issues, leadership, cross-cultural understanding, problem solving, and communicative English. We aim to maximize students' experiences through thought-provoking seminars, engaging classes, excursions, conversations with peers, and practical discussion.

GPI US is seeking a University of Chicago student who is interested in sharing their college experiences with Japanese high school students visiting and learning in Chicago. Interest in global education, Japanese culture, and experience living abroad is a plus.

Duties Include:

- Leading a one-hour Fellowship in either a small discussion group or in front of a larger group in a panel-type discussion
 - Topics of discussion should range from empowering/motivating personal stories to your daily life to why you chose the University of Chicago
 - The fellowship will not be an admissions session
 - If students have trouble asking meaningful questions, we welcome you to guide the session
- Leading a one-hour Tour of the campus for 10 – 15 students
 - The tour will be unique and personal based on your time at the University of Chicago. It can range from showing students your favorite café or reading spot to your freshman dorm or favorite classroom
 - The tour is not a Wikipedia history tour, although taking time for some famous photo spots and ancient U of C myths and legends is always welcome
- Being able to engage and draw out questions from students during the Fellowship and Tour

Requirements:

- Applicants should have an interest in education, international culture, global issues, travel, and/or Japan
- Applicants must be fluent in English

Dates & Compensation:

- March 27, 2019 @ 12:30pm – 2:30pm
- Compensation is $100 for the 2-hour Campus Tour & Fellowship
